INTRODUCTION

On the 348 rolls of this microfilm publication are reproduced the applications submitted for shares of the money that was appropriated for the Eastern Cherokee Indians by the Congress on June 30, 1906. The Eastern Cherokee applications, August 29, 1906-May 26, 1909, are part of the Guion Miller Enrollment Records that are among the records of the U.S. Court of Claims. This publication also includes a general index to Eastern Cherokee applications (two vols.).

History

Before the U.S. Court of Claims was established in 1855 there was no procedure by which claims arising against the U.S. Government could be enforced by suit. Consideration of claims was provided for when the Treasury Department was established in 1789; later acts of the Congress authorized the Department to settle all claims by or against the Government. If a claim was rejected by the Treasury Department, the claimant's only course of action was to appeal directly to the Congress. Petitions to that body for relief had become so numerous by the middle of the 19th century that the Congress was beginning to find it impossible to make the proper and necessary investigations for actions on the claims.

The U.S. Court of Claims was established by an act of February 24, 1855, to hear claims against the United States including those referred to the court by the Congress, based on any law of the Congress, any regulation of an executive department, or any contract with the Government, whether explicit or implied. Under this act the court served only as a factfinding agency, and its conclusions were submitted to the Congress for approval and for the granting of awards. In 1863 the Congress enlarged the court's jurisdiction and gave it authority to render judgments against the Government, with the right of appeal to the Supreme Court. An act of 1925 abolished appeals from the Court of Claims to the Supreme Court and substituted writs of certiorari.

An act approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. 726), gave the Court of Claims jurisdiction over any claim arising under treaty stipulations that the Cherokee Tribe, or any band thereof, might have against the United States and over any claims that the United States might have against any Cherokee Tribe or band. Suit for such a claim was to be instituted within 2 years after the act was approved. As a result, three suits were brought before the court concerning grievances arising out of the treaties:

On May 18, 1905, the court decided in favor of the Eastern Cherokees and instructed the Secretary of the Interior to identify the persons entitled to participate in the distribution of funds for payment of the claims. On June 30, 1906, the Congress appropriated more than $1 million for this purpose. The task of compiling a roll of eligible persons was begun by Guion Miller, special agent of the Interior Department. In a decree of April 29, 1907, the court (1) vacated that part of its earlier decision that had given the Secretary of the Interior responsibility for determining the eligibility of claimants and (2) appointed Miller as a special commissioner of the Court of Claims.

The same decree also provided that the fund was to be distributed to all Eastern and Western Cherokee Indians who were alive on May 28, 1906, who could establish the fact that at the time of the treaties they were members of the Eastern Cherokee Tribe or were descendants of such persons, and that they had not been affiliated with any tribe of Indians other than the Eastern Cherokee or the Cherokee Nation. The decree further provided that claimants should already have applications on file with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, or should file such applications with the special commissioner of the Court of Claims on or before August 31, 1907. Additionally, applications for minors and persons of unsound mind were to be filed by their parents or persons having their care and custody, and applications for persons who had died after May 28, 1906, were to be filed by their children or legal representatives.

In his report of May 28, 1909, Miller stated that 45,847 separate applications had been filed, representing a total of about 90,000 individual claimants, 30,254 of whom were enrolled as entitled to share in the fund--3,203 residing east and 27,051 residing west of the Mississippi River. On June 10, 1909, the court confirmed and approved the roll, submitted by Miller in his report, of Eastern Cherokees who were entitled to a share of the fund except "so much as shall be expected (excepted) to on or before August 30, 1909." After the exceptions had been filed and investigated, Miller submitted a supplemental report and roll to the court on January 5, 1910. In this report he stated that about 11,750 exceptions had been made, that the names of 610 persons (238 east and 372 west of the Mississippi) had been added to the roll, and that the names of 44 persons (5 east and 39 west of the Mississippi) had been stricken from the roll because clerical errors in enrollment had been discovered. Thus the final figure on the total number of persons entitled to share in the fund was 30,820, of which 3,436 persons resided east and 27,384 resided west of the Mississippi River. On March 15, 1910, the court finally decreed that the rolls be approved and that, after certain deductions for expenditures, payments were to be made equally among the Eastern Cherokees who were enrolled. The court also authorized the Secretary of the Treasury to issue a warrant in favor of each person.

In certifying the eligibility of the Cherokees, Miller used earlier census lists and rolls that had been made of the Cherokees by Hester, Chapman, Drennen, and others between 1835 and 1884. Copies of some of these rolls and the indexes to them are filed with the Miller records (filmed as M685). Other enrollment records used by Miller are among the classified subject files of the Bureau and are designated as "33931-11-053 Cherokee Nation."

Records

The applications contain sworn evidences of identity and were filed with the Interior Department's Office of Indian Affairs until April 29, 1907 (the last application was No. 22268), after which the applications were filed directly with the court. The application required each claimant to state fully his or her English and Indian names, residence, age, place of birth, name of husband or wife, name of tribe, and names of children. It further required the English and Indian names of the claimant's parents and grandparents, place of their birth, place of their residence in 1851 if they were living at that time, dates of their death, and a statement as to whether any of them had ever before been enrolled as Indians for annuities or other benefits and, if so, with what tribe. Each claimant was also to furnish the names of all brothers and sisters, with their ages and residences, and the names and residences of all uncles and aunts. Applications were required to be made under oath and to be supported by affidavits of two witnesses who were well acquainted with the applicant. With each application is a card showing final action taken and the reasons therefore. Filed with many of the applications are inquiries concerning the status of the cases, requests for further evidence, protests about unfavorable actions, form letters that had been sent by the special commissioner to the applicants as notices of rejection of their applications and returned by the Post Office Department as unclaimed, affidavits and statements of witnesses, powers of attorney, and last wills and testaments. The applications are arranged by the number assigned at the time the application was received. There are some gaps in the application numbers; these are explained on insert sheets at the appropriate places on the film. The index is arranged alphabetically by name (either English or Indian) of claimant.

Many of the files contain a cross-reference card to other applications. This cross-reference card often refers to the EX file, the report on exceptions filed by Miller on January 5, 1910.

Honorable Thomas Mackay,
House of Representatives,
Washington, D. C.

Sir:-

I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of your letter of January 9, 1908, inclosing a letter from Mr. Walter J. Miller, of Warthen, Missouri, relative to the payment of the fund arising from the payment of the part of claims in favor of the Western Shoshone.

In reply you are advised that it is impossible, at present time, to state when this fund will be distributed. This office has completed the examination of the applications, and the same are now in the hands of the rolls of the Indian Office, and in this case where the applications are of the same kind, some testimony in the field, and will be submitted to the Board of Claims for its approval. Some time will be allowed for the Board of Claims. If many exceptions should be made, further investigation will have to be made, and until the Board has decided on these exceptions and the final roll has been approved, no further action can be distributed.

#2--Hon. Thomas Hackney:

As more than 44,000 applications have been filed in this office, it will necessarily take considerable time to finish this work.

It appears from the face of Mr. Mitchell's application that the same was not filed within the time specified by the Court, but if any further information should be required in connection with this claim Mr. Legg will be notified.

Mr. Saylor's letter is returned, herewith.

Hon. Guy Miller,

My dear Sir:-

I was referred to you for information by Honorable Samuel W. Peel, late a member of Congress from Arkansas.

I desire to know whether or not Mary Corn¹³⁸⁷²tasle and James Corn-tasle (That is their Indian names. They are part Cherokee and part negro. The name they go by now is Mitchell), are on the rolls of the Eastern Bands of Cherokees, whom you were appointed Commissioner to enroll.

Their application was put in, at least that of James Corn¹³⁸⁷²tasle
(Mitchel), was, at Carthage, Missouri, and as I understand was done through Walter B. Saylor, Attorney at Law, of Carthage, Missouri.

Any information you can furnish me relative to the matter will be highly appreciated. I would be glad to know whether or not there is any likelihood of this claim being paid soon, and through what

Bank the same will be paid, if allowed.

Assuring you in advance of my appreciation of a prompt reply,

Sir:

On June 18th, 1907, you were notified that it would be necessary for you to file an original application. Up to this time there is no record of the receipt of such application. The time has now expired in which you could file your application, but you have on file an application for three minor children. From the information contained in said supplemental application it is impossible to connect your children with the Eastern Cherokee. It will be necessary, therefore, for you to supplement the information contained therein by answering the following questions:

1. From your supplemental application that your wife was a white woman. Your children therefore must claim their Indian blood through you, and you are requested to set forth through last ancestor you claim your Cherokee blood; father, your father or your mother.
2. The parent through whom you claim your Cherokee blood was enrolled with the Eastern Cherokee, and, if so, on what roll?
3. Give the full name of your mother, her maiden name.
4. Was the parent through whom you claim your blood ever married? If so, give the name of the other parent.

7. Give the names of the brothers and sisters of the parent through whom you claim your Cherokee blood, and state where they are living at the present time.

As the above information is absolutely necessary in determining the rights of your children to share in this fund, you are requested to answer this letter immediately. In the event of your failure to reply to this communication the claim which you have filed for your children will be rejected by reason of your failure to submit sufficient evidence to connect your children with the Eastern Cherokees.

Madam:

Receipt is acknowledged of your supplemental application for participation in the Eastern Cherokee Funds.

This Office is unable to find any record of an original application filed by you, therefore here is enclosed herewith a blank for that purpose, which you will fill out, sign, using your given name, and swear to, having the supplementary affidavit signed and sworn to by two witnesses.

Your attention is called to the necessity of having this application sworn to by yourself and witnesses before the proper official, a Notary Public or other person having a seal, as the supplemental application received bears the signature of a person who has no authority in that particular.

You are further directed to the fact that, unless you have Eastern Cherokee blood, it will be useless to apply for a share of this money, as no one except Eastern Cherokees are permitted to participate to share therein.

I am in receipt of your letter of July 14, 1909, calling attention to the fact that you have been omitted from the Eastern Cherokee Roll, and that your father and brothers and sisters have been enrolled.

In reply you are advised that your omission from the roll was an error, and that your name, and the names of your two children, will be placed on the roll before payment is begun. Your youngest child, Eunice, will not be enrolled as children born after May 28, 1906, are not entitled to share in the fund.

It will not be necessary for you to file any objection in this case.

Very respectfully,

Special Commissioner.

J. R. Franks was my husband. He is dead. He claimed Indian blood through his mother. He was 47 years old. He was born in Wayne County, Tenn. He came West about 20 years ago. We have lived in the Territory two years. I have seen his mother. She was living in Wayne County, Tenn. She was born either in North Carolina or Tennessee. Her parents went to Tennessee from North Carolina. My husband never got an allotment out here. His mother never received any Indian money. There were no Indians living in Wayne County when we left there. My husband was a voter. None of his immediate relatives ever received any Indian money.

J. M. Puckett being first duly sworn deposes and says:

My name is James M. Puckett, and I live in Wood County, Tex. I am 45 years old. I am of Indian descent through my father, James A. Puckett. I was born in Wood County, Tex. My father was born in Cherokee County, Ala. My father was killed in the last year of the Civil war, and was about 45 years old. My father James A. Puckett moved to Texas from Cherokee County in 1856. My father got his Indian blood through his mother, Dorkus Adair (maiden name) who was 1/4 Cherokee Indian. My grandmother was born in Tenn. I do not know in what county. My grandmother was born in 1804. She died about 1898, in Cherokee County, Ala. She moved from Tenn to Cherokee County, Ala. shortly after her marriage, and she lived there until her death. I never saw my grandparents, and I was only 7 months old when my father was killed. But I have been informed by my relatives, especially my uncle, Rice Puckett, of my Indian descent. He has always told me that I had Cherokee Indian blood in my veins. My uncle died about 4 years ago, in Greenwood Ark. My uncle has told me that there were two Cherokee girls by the name of Arnold, they were full blood Indians. He said that one of them married an Adair, and one of them a Duncan. To the Adair union there were born three boys and one girl. One of these boys, Sandil Adair, was my great grandfather. My uncle never told me that any of my own immediate family ever received any money from the Government on account of their Indian blood. But my uncle said that Rufus Adair of Talequah and the W. E. ~~Deupree~~ Deupree of Vinita, ~~are~~ the former dead, and the latter still living in Vinita, are kin to us, and claim their blood through the same line. They were both allowed lands and money in the Indian Territory on account of their Cherokee blood. I cannot give just the exact relationship. I think that my great grandfather was a brother to Deuprees great grandfather. I am regarded in the community in which I live as a white man.

Guion Miller, Esq., Special Comm'r,

Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:

I enclose the application of Winona Burton, made by her husband and next friend, Elbert C. Burton, for herself and as the heir of her brother Claude Hazelwood, who died in July, 1907, in the reform school here in Washington. No administration has been had on young Hazelwood's estate, and of course we desire to avoid the necessity of it.

I will thank you to advise me whether you will consider this as an application for both parties.

You will observe that this applicant and her recently deceased brother, are both minors of tender years. Their guardian failed to protect their interests in this particular and I apprehend no objection to the application being received now.

Very truly yours,

W. H. Robeson

Were they enrolled with the Old Settlers?

Have you been enrolled by the Dawes Commission? If so, give your number and indicate on what roll your name appears.

Were any of your ancestors held as slaves? If so, were they owned by white people or Indians?

Dear Sir:- Herewith find application of the Reynolds minor children by their father, S. J. Reynolds, deceased. I wrote you some time ago about filing minors in the orphan's court, making such entries as deemed necessary by me. I have never received anything from you regarding that letter but would like to know if you will accept the applications for such minors filed in that manner. If not, I will of course have to have them received no receipts for such minor children filed as at 18. Hence the inquiry. Please let me know and oblige.

Mr. Guion Miller,
Sgt'l. Commissioner,
Washington, D.C.

Dear Sir:- Herewith find Application of the Reynolds minor children by their father, S.J. Reynolds, husband of Sarah A.
Reynolds nee Sarah A. Hubbard, deceased.

I wrote you some time ago about filing minors in the original applications, making such changes as deemed necessary by me. I have heard nothing from you regarding that letter but, would like to know if you will accept the applications for such minors filed in that manner. If not, I will of course have to have them that I can file Supplementals for them.
I have received no receipts for such minor children filed as of yet, hence the inquiry. Please let me know and oblige.

Very truly,

John J. Hubbard

Fannie Wheeler,
Henson, Mo.

Madam:-

Relative to your application for participation in the Eastern Cherokee Fund, kindly state why you, your parents or grandparents were never enrolled.

Were any of your ancestors slaves? Do you pass as white or colored in the community in which you live?

Were any of your ancestors parties to the treaties of 1835-6 or 1846?

State clearly the name of the ancestor through whom you claim to come to share in this fund, and give any other information obtainable which will tend to substantiate your claim.

An early reply will be appreciated.

Very respectfully,

Special Agent in Charge.
